

Rethinking Civilization

---

1. How does agriculture play a part in civilization?
2. "Barbarians" are usually from what places?
3. What is the basis upon which most all civilizations are formed?
4. How are civilized groups different from barbarians?
5. Why might it be better to live in the hills/mountains rather than the city?
6. Because we live in a civilization, how do we view civilizations?
7. What are some of the real downsides of civilization?

Name _____

Crash Course

Rethinking Civilization

---

8. Describe the Zomia Region. Include: Why it was created, and why their history is flawed.
9. How do Europeans such as Sir Stamford Raffles describe colonial rule in Indonesia?
10. Why do nomads and hill people live outside state structure according to John Green?
11. What are some accomplishments of Civilization?
12. What are some advantages of living a "Zomian" type of lifestyle?
13. What does John Green suggest history really is?
14. Explain why James Scott suggests that hill people made the conscience choice to leave civilization?

Name _____